Citadis Dualis commissioned in Nantes

7 Jul, 2015

Alstom has commissioned all 24 Citadis Dualis tram-trains ordered by the Pays de la Loire region. The final vehicle has now entered passenger service on the Nantes-Clisson line. SNCF placed a framework order in 2007 with Alstom worth €650 million for 200 Citadis Dualis tram-train units.

Pays de la Loire exercised an option taking its total fleet to 24 vehicles. The tram-trains are also in operation on the Nantes-Châteaubriant line.

The final commissioning was marked by Jacques Auxiette, president of the Regional Council of Pays de la Loire, Stephanie Dommange, SNCF regional director and Loire Valley Ana Giros, executive director of Alstom Transport France.
